To whom this may concern,

Thorin Teague has worked for the College for Creative Studies as a work-study student since the fall of 2004. He currently works as an AV assistant in the ITS Department's Audio-Visual Center and as a student proctor for the general computer labs.

Thorin has proven to be a valuable asset to the ITS Department with great ability to work independently to get tasks completed efficiently and on time. Thorin is a self-starter; always willing to help out other students and instructors even when he is not working. Because of his excellent troubleshooting skills, I never hesitate to send a student, who is having problems with Maya, to Thorin for help. Thorin always is more than willing to take on extra hours when asked. I consider him to be one of our most reliable work-study students. He has an excellent work ethic.

I strongly recommend Thorin for any position in which he is being considered. Feel free to contact me if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

Sue Colomina
